A. General Description

1. Background

New students' Admissions must meet the principles of credibility, fairness, transparency, flexibility, efficiency, and accountability, and non-discrimination. Higher education institutions as education providers accept prospective students with high academic achievements and are predicted to complete their studies on time. Students who have high achievement and consistently show their SMA / SMK / MA achievements deserve the opportunity to become prospective students through the National Selection for State Universities (SNMPTN).

In integrating secondary education with higher education, schools are given a role in the SNMPTN selection process. Schools as academic units and teachers as educators are always assumed to uphold honor and honesty, character education principles. Therefore, schools are obliged to complete the School and Student Database (PDSS), which contains complete and correct track records of school performance and student academic achievement. PDSS is a database that is used as the primary source of SNMPTN data. Data management and processing to select the SNMPTN pathway are carried out by the Higher Education Entrance Test Institution (LTMPT). LTMPT is the only standard university test provider in Indonesia.

2. Objectives

SNMPTN objectives are

- a. Provide opportunities for SMA / SMK / MA students at home and abroad (Sekolah Republik Indonesia / SRI) who have superior achievements to pursue higher education at State Universities (PTN). ## A. General Description

1. Background

Computer-Based Written Examination (UTBK) is an entrance test to higher education carried out by the Higher Education Entrance Test Institute (LTMPT) as the only institution that provides standardized tertiary tests in Indonesia. The advantage of implementing UTBK by LTMPT is that the test results are given individually. UTBK 2021 can be followed by graduate students in 2019, 2020, and 2021 from secondary education (SMA / MA / SMK) and equivalent and Package C graduates in 2019, 2020, 2021. UTBK is the main requirement for participating in the Joint Selection to Enter Higher Education (SBMPTN).

Since 2019, the State Higher Education Entrance Joint Selection (SBMPTN) selects new student admissions using only UTBK results or UTBK results and other criteria jointly set by PTN. Therefore, information regarding UTBK is an inseparable part of the SBMPTN.

2. Purposes

- a. Purpose of UTBK:
  - 1) Predicting prospective students who can complete their studies in higher education correctly and on time;
  - 2) Provide opportunities for prospective students to flexibly take the test, namely choosing the test's location and time.
- b. Objectives of the SBMPTN:
  - 1) Select prospective students who are predicted to be able to complete their studies in higher education correctly and on time based on the results of the UTBK only or the effects of UTBK and other criteria set jointly by PTN;
  - 2) Provide opportunities for prospective students to choose more than one PTN across regions;
  - 3) They help universities obtain prospective students who are predicted to complete their studies in tertiary institutions based on academic grades alone or academic scores and other student achievements.

3. UTBK Material

UTBK uses exam questions designed according to academic principles concerning test development to measure necessary abilities and predict prospective students' success in all study programs. UTBK consists of:

- a. TPS measures cognitive abilities that are considered essential for success in traditional schools. Significantly higher education in the TPS that will be tested is general reasoning ability, quantitative ability, general knowledge and understanding, and ability to understand reading and writing. Quantitative abilities will include Knowledge and Mastery of Basic Mathematics. At the TPS, some questions were presented in English.
- b. They measure the knowledge and understanding of science taught in schools and necessary for a person to pursue higher education. TKA also measures cognitive abilities that are directly related to the content of subjects studied in School. The emphasis of the test is on Higher Order Thinking Skills (HOTS).
